Melodic Pop music with electronic and dance elements. Sima Fisher is the type of artist you would love to go see at a live performance but also listen to while you drive alone, belting out along to, alone in the car.

10 MP3 Songs POP: with Electronic Production, ELECTRONIC: Dance Details: Sima Fisher Project is a modern symbiotic marriage between song, poetry and dance. The music is a movement of sounds and abstract ideas. There is no plot. Everybody in the audience walks away with a different interpretation of the music. The music is tightly arranged but theres also room for improvisation.- Ian Halperin, Feb 2005.

It was the summer of 2000. I was living out of the back of my Red Jeep that used to always break down and my best friend was living in her uncle's pool house. When I'd come to visit, we'd spend our days laying in the pool and our nights writing songs and recording them on our small cassette player. Those were the days when nothing mattered but sunshine and red wine! I guess it was one of the more free times in my life where I didn't even care if I had a home as long as I was having fun, typical Sagittarius"

Sima Fisher Feb.,2005 Sima Fisher has always enjoyed music and remembered her first days as a child sitting in kindergarten and not knowing anything the teacher was talking about but when the teacher gave her a crayon and turned on music and told the class "ok now kids, draw how you feel when you hear this music". It was what came natural to Sima. 'Sima used to sit in the bathtub singing and making up new songs and splashing around.'-Chris Levnaich. During Sima's school days Sima was always above class when it came to artist and writing but when it came to chemistry she knew which chemicals caused a huge reaction. She still knows today and lures people into her amazing presence. After school, Sima began dancing at night clubs, working in movies and television, going to fitness competitions and bikini competitions and landing small roles in shows shot in Toronto. She traveled to New York and LA where she had friends in the industry and did a little modeling for fashion designers she met through her agency.

Sima is close with her family which consists of four brothers and four sisters. All of her brothers and sisters are sports and musically orientated "I remember when we used to play soccer in our back yard and my dad would be looking out the window and playing his accordion, then he'd call me in to tell me it was time for me to practice" Sima studied accordion and music since she was seven years old. Sima is From Toronto Ontario Canada but grew up in the country outskirts of Toronto. 'I always love coming home to my family they help to keep me grounded when things get a little rough. I know that if I ever have a bad week I can call up my sisters and brothers and just to hear there voices makes me feel so much better and then I can get on with my day' 'In a way singing runs in my family...I guess it's an Irish thing.My grandfather's brother who is Irish used to sing professionally and my mother would sing around the house when I was a child. Although she never thought she was a good singer I always looked up to her. She was so beautiful to me. My mom is the best mom in the whole world.I never really ever let her know that though.' Simas mother was so busy with her family, a very simple family living in the country and taking simple pleasures. During Halloween they'd go up the pumpkin patch and pick out there favorite pumpkin and at Chritamas and Chunuka celebrate with hot apple cider. 'My family is a mix of Jewish and Chiristian so we usually celebrate both occasions.. we are all a piece of God if we choose to be.' Sima has many creative outlets including painting, singing, acting, dancing, poetry, story writing. All of these outlets help to balance Sima as an artist. 'It helps me to get my emotions out and my feeling and my passions. Some people say I have too many things on the go but, I need all of these outlets to be true to myself. It's not easy for me to express myself when I talk to someone so I end up laying in bed thinking of what I should have said to someone..then I have to turn the light on and write it down in the form of a song or poem or story' Sima has done several paintings and poems 'I'll just stay up all night painting and singing and writing poems for the paintings. As I do paintings and redo them different emotions come out onto the paper that I'm feeling' Sima also has a passion for acting it. simafisher.com
