

Mp3 Six Million Dollar Band - Episode 1: It's Bionic

DOWNLOAD HERE

Pop-based Funk with Reggae Influences; crisp, cool and refreshing just like a perfect cocktail. 7 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, ROCK: Funk Rock Details: Checking out a live performance is strongly recommended for one of the best nights of entertainment you will have in a long time. We are constantly writing new, original songs so the set list always changes from gig to gig. Feel free to email us at booking@sixmilliondollarbandand we will add you to our email list, or just call us at 503-772-9797.

Bio On Albert Flores Bass Player for The Six Million Dollar Band Albert has been playing bass for over 14 years, and has had the good fortune to train with such industry greats as Skip Battin of The Byrds, Gary Fontaine of Nu Shooz and Melvin of the Dan Reed Network. Albert has also worked with and recorded albums for Rick Caliar (El Debarge of Motown Records) and joined Rick in the Gospel Choir Band at Newsong Church. When Alberts not spending time with his wife and daughter, he can be found rehearsing, playing the Portland club scene and sampling local microbrews.

Bio On Andy McEwan Lead Vocals Percussion for The Six Million Dollar Band Born in a mountain village in Wales to a musical family; his Nan still sings in a choir, his mum was in a choir and his uncle conducted the orchestra at the Olympics in Australia. Andy played trumpet for years as a child and was in many junior orchestras and groups. He played and acted in the theatre and at pantomimes. Andy left for London when he was 15 years old and shared an apartment with jazz sax players. He joined a Ska Band called Eskalator and they had a hit song that reached number 7 in the British charts. Andy was a trumpet session player also and played on the same bills with industry greats such as: The Specials, The English Beat, The Jam and The Damned. Andy then retired for some years until he moved to Miami, Florida and started out playing for fun with a band he named So What. He then formed The Young Ones and took things seriously playing gigs and touring in over 1200 shows. Andy left Miami in June 2002 to start a band with new direction and appeal in what he considers to be the most artistically gifted city in the US; Portland, Oregon. Thank you Portland, thank you sixmilliondollar boys. Bio On Doug Fox Guitar Vocals for The Six Million Dollar Band The day is October 4th 1966 and Douglas Owen Fox is ready to see the world. Twenty minutes after his identical twin brother he enters a place called Jewett City, CT. This is the lovely place where he will grow and share with his mother, father and two brothers. Shy, sweet and unassuming, Doug shows his determination through skateboarding competitions, golf and baseball. Dougs mother refuses to attend little league games when faced with the embarrassing displays of poor sportsmanship, such as throwing himself on the field yelling and screaming. He then takes to music and begins to learn guitar and bass playing. At the age of seventeen Doug decides to retire from Griswold High to pursue a career as a bass player in Florida. After that he goes traveling and then decides to join the army. Doug served in the Gulf War. While there he sharpens his skills as a guitarist. He then returns to his station in Ft. Lewis where he meets Mona, his now wife of three years. They travel together through the NW and settle in Portland, Oregon where they bought a home and have a three and a half year old son Cameron and a new baby Preston Andrew born January 2nd, 2003. Bio On Christopher Evans Drummer for The Six Million Dollar Band Thanks to Animal, Jake, Elwood, John B., Neil P. Donald Trump. Please send all money and correspondence to: 5609 SE 68th Ave, Portland, OR 97206 Christopher would like to thank Andy Keeling, Doug Fox, Albert Flores, Karen Keeling all the support staff for The Six Million Dollar Band for bringing their make out to the masses. May all our days be long and full of lotsa good times. Seeya. Drumming is the most basic of all musical instincts, so- When in Rome.....Speak Italian (It Helps).

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: