Music fans young and old, devoured by senseless violence, drugs, and sex; which shower the music industry with death. It is time for a new message, a new direction, and a new choice: The Peoples Choice. No longer drunk with their own pleasures, P.C. firmly stands in the path of renewal, ready to enlighten and educate. P.C stands for empowerment, truth, and the celebration of life. Their music consists of external war beats, along side their ear-pleasing story of the streets. This talented group: consists of 2 family men who capture the essence of a rough world, where the hardship of street life is unbearable. 3rd Rail (Kamel Bess), escaped an electrifying past filled with guns and violence, enabling him to conquer societys stereotype. He crossed paths with Gooch (Vincent Gumbs), the slightly younger member of the group in 1999. Gooch was already part of a hip-hop group based in Flatbush, Brooklyn. These men have decided to share their responsible lyrics with the families of the world. P.C has performed at places such as the Ark, Marc Ballroom, Gospel Explosion 2004 and many other venues and left the crowd with memories of why hip-hop was invented. P.C is the strong medicine of the world, challenging people to think for themselves. Taneka Grace grew up in Southside Jamaica Queens, New York. Taneka was passionate about art since the age of 5. Taneka blossomed into an illustrator and then discovered she had another God-given gift. Around the age of 11 she developed a fanatical interest in spoken word and singing. Accepting Jesus Christ just two years later helped her to realize that spoken word was her God-given ministry. She has performed at numerous venues throughout the tri-state area including: The African Poetry Theater, Ackwaaba Caf, and Gospel Explosion 2004 and 2005. Two of her performances aired on television in Brooklyn on BCAT and in Queens QVTV. Taneka also toured the United States with Prof. Ron Felder and the Voices of Inspiration appearing on the Bobby Jones Gospel Show, The Music Workshop of America, and with the New York Fellowship Mass Choir Part II. Taneka had the pleasure of ministering beside such greats as Timothy Wright, Angela Spivey, Byron Cage, and Dottie Peeples. Although all her poetry is inspired by God, she admired the styles of master poets, Gwendolyn Brooks, Robert Frost, and Walt Whitman to name a few. She uses words to paint the lives of others with words of inspiration. Taneka has been appointed by God to tell stories that encourage others to pursue greatness as she continues to endeavor this heavenly journey like rolls of thunder. I accepted Christ when I was 6 years old and even knew then that there was an inexplicable power inside of me.
