Details: THE SIGHTINGS AND SOUNDS OF TOM BARB WEBBER AND FRIEND GREGG LINDSAY "(*) Traveler's Lullaby...is truly folk music...full of glorious three-part harmonies...an auspicious debut." Thom Jurek, All Music Guide "The dynamic blend of Barb Webber's exceptionally strong songwriting, Tom Webber's inspired musical arrangements, and Gregg Lindsay's fine lead guitar playing is coupled with their exquisite, soaring vocal harmonies. Traveler's Lullaby is a treasure chest of musical delights." Jym Mooney, The Coffee House, Milwaukee, WI "The production has a very polished shine and Barbara's original songs display a flair for strong, simple melodies wedded to compelling personal narratives...The intimacy and personal emotions of the songs on...Traveler's Lullaby...come forth strongly." Dave Tianen, Milwaukee Journal Sentinel Discography TRAVELER'S LULLABY (2000) INDIGO SKY (2002) ONE BALL OF CLAY, SONGS OF PEACE AND HOPE (2002 Milwaukee artist compilation) These CD's are inspired collections of acoustic folk music. Their music and style has been favorably compared to the likes of Nanci Griffith, Bill Staines, Robin Linda Williams, and Mary Chapin Carpenter. Tom's voice carries the rumble of the Texas Panhandle, Barb's voice the clarity of pure light, and Gregg's voice the mellow warmth of a summer's dusk. Together, they create dynamic and stirring harmonies. Performers Tom Barb Webber can be found playing in many of Milwaukee's area's most popular folk venues. Their concerts feature acoustic music, encompassing traditional and contemporary folk, country, blues, along with their own original material. On occasion, Gregg Lindsay will swing in from Pittsburgh, supplementing the Milwaukee duo with some tasty guitar leads and third-part harmony. Awards *Barb and Tom Webber named 2003 Folk Artist Award from WAMI (Wisconsin Music Industry Award) *Profit Line (Indigo Sky 2003) 2nd place song contest winner WAMI *1996 The Coffee House Midwinter Talent Contest. Milwaukee, WI
