Erick Bellitto's personal lyrics are often autobiographical and thus both brutally honest and sweetly endearing. It's easy to imagine a stadium packed with eager fans singing along, holding on to every word, and making his story their own. On the heels of their new release zerochance landed the headlining slot on the Tire Kingdom main stage for Florida's SunFest 2006 after other performances by international artists including: Ashlee Simpson, Train, Jason Mraz, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Fiona Apple, Bruce Hornsby, Carrie Underwood and Teddy Geiger.
