He is determined to participate in the preservation and upfull promotion of the genre by blending the past, present and future into his own positive, unique and timeless contribution, not simply to reggae, but to the art of positive, musical expression the world over while striving to cultivate a clean heart and a fertile mind. He might still be flying under the so called "radar", but this gifted, "self-contained", artist who exhibits the ability to please the ear, soothe the soul, stimulate the mind and make one sing along, will not remain unknown for much longer, Jah Know! Professor Skank of Skank Productions recently included the title track, "Divine Creation", on the playlist for the "Best of 2004" edition of his radio program, "Positive Vibrations", on KDHX 88.1 FM in St. Louis, MO. The Professor is also including that track on his next cd, "Crucial Reggae from Outside Jamaica Vol. 2", so be on the lookout for that. Check out skankproductions.com. Meanwhile Dj Bahilman of the rapidly growing "Creation Steppin' Radio" (winner of Live 365 Radio's 2004 Best Professional Website Best Reggae Station!) has been consistently playing several of Zion Judah's songs since October of 2004, and in his "Top 30 Albums of 2004" countdown, the album "Divine Creation" came in at NO. 5. Maximum respect and love has been given to the artist by "Ackee Saltfish", Austria's premier reggae show, heard on Orange 94.0 FM and at orange.or.at/programs/ackee_saltfish. He received two massive "Spotlights" from this program, touting his songwriting ability, vocal skills and the debut album as a whole, as a standout amongst all the debuts that they have been presenting from late 2004 into early 2005, and on the local, NYC circuit, radio stations such as, 88.9, 99.9 and 95.1 FM, have a number of tracks off the album on regular rotation, so all in all, he has been receiving increasing airplay, support, positive reviews and comments from around the US and all over blessed mother earth. Not too bad for a release late in the year, by a newcomer with only the backing of his own humble, "no-frills" indie label (Mt. Zion Records), a few good Gideon soldiers and guidance from EL ELOHIM!
