Pauline and Trevor was born, raised and educated in Barbados. With similar attributes and interests they have been writing since childhood. Both have traveled the world at some extent and have accumulated a lifetime of experiences between them, which they desire to share, with the intention to inspire and empower others. These siblings are like spiritual twins, they share a genetic symmetry which has developed in unity with their maturity. This book, Prose of Power, gives a glimpse of how change occurs over time - language changes, and changes in peoples' life-styles in particular. The reader is therefore taken along a journey of growth and change. Pauline had studied music, drama and the commercials industry when growing up, and became highly skilled with handicrafts and making music. Trevor's forte is one who is specialized in languages, health, travel and salsa dance, as well as writing poetry. As a medium of spiritual enlightenment, this small book encourages people of all ages, cultures and backgrounds, to move toward a higher awareness of the significance of Change, for a better future.
