His songs are honest, his voice soulful and his highly anticipated debut album id do it all again is available now! its tried, true 100 texas. Introducing bill rice. bills record is top notch! his songs are great and his voice is as soulful as you will hear. The great production on this record adds to the high quality he was goin for. id do it all again is as good a debut album as you will find in my opinion. - kevin fowler "i was honored to sing on bill rice's record. His voice is as warm open as the texas plains. He writes sings about real life, with a no-bullshit sensibility. It's going to be fun watching folks get their ears on bill. "- walt wilkins "bill rice's songs remind me of dallas frazer or bob mcdill. They're great songwriters too. And when i hear bill sing, i think of merle haggard. That's about as good as it gets in my book. "-kent finley (songwriter/owner-cheatham st warehouse
