Hybrid Folk is a term coined to describe Doug's writing style and play list. The catalogue primarily consists of original tunes along with songs "I wish I'd written". Audiences come away from performances WARMED, AMUSED INSPIRED. A gratified listener once commented, I feel like I was just read to! Recording projects include SCRAPBOOK 2000, TRAVELOGUE 2002, SEASONS 2004 and KEEPSAKES 2007. Also, hear two cuts on THE ROAD HOME and one cut on THE ROAD HOME II. These CDs are compilations of songs by West Virginia songwriters. They are produced by Ron Sowell, music director for West Virginia Public Radios Mountain Stage. hybridfolk.com "There is something so familiar and comfortable about a Doug and Shelley Harper performance - like sitting in your living room with a couple of old friends. Their relaxed style, smooth harmonies, down home charm and beautiful original songs both delight you and put you at ease. You want them to stay all night and no matter how long they play, you want to hear one more song before they leave." Ron Sowell MUSIC DIRECTOR FOR NPR'S MOUNTAIN STAGE - QUOTE (Sept. 4, 2007)
