I've played all types of music behind the drums, from heavy metal, to jazz, to pop, to country. I came back home to Tillamook Oregon, picked up the guitar and started hashing out whatever came to me. These songs really depict every day life and all the feelings in between. It's Just good-honest, down-home, Travelin', or sittin'-on-your-front-porch-tunes, ! Oh yes, and some lovin' songs too. People say they hear some Willie Nelson, Neil Young, John Mellencamp, and alot of Steve Earle. Have I kept the beat for some pretty hip individuals? If you count partying and jamming with New Riders of the Purple Sage, or Canned Heat, While I lived in Juneau Alaska, Then I guess so!.
