The Heavens are rumbling and there are murmurs of war. Brenna hears the pounding drums, but can only think of one thing. Azrael, the Angel of Death. She thought being a vampire was difficult, but becoming an angel is even harder. Her desires run her hot and cold and everything she knows is falling down around her while all she yearns for is her soulmate. Azrael has kept himself away from Brenna, hoping to stop the war. However, the angels are falling around him. There is nothing to be done even when he hears Brenna's forlorn cries. To go to her would ignite the war. Will Azrael risk it all just to appease the one he loves, or will his Heavenly duties take precedent. To make matters worse there is a dark force rising from the bowels of the universe and Maestema has his eye on one thing. Ruling over everything and creating a paradise for his demons. In order to learn her new powers and save the world, Brenna must travel to the outer reaches of the galaxy and confront her own inner demons. Will the world be saved? Will Azrael hear her cries? Will Brenna face the darkest evil of all? Or will the whole of humanity be damned for all time?
