Beautiful, energetic instrumental piano, with orchestral accompaniment. 11 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Orchestral, EASY LISTENING: Background Music Details: Dave Sterling wrote his first two songs at age five, and has been writing piano music and performing ever since. Growing up in Texas, Dave was classically trained on the piano, but also developed an appreciation for the varied sounds of jazz, rock, and country. The result of these influences can be heard in Daves music beautiful melodies supported with a high-energy style of playing. His music has been featured in concerts, dance performances, and promotional materials for several organizations. Dave has performed with world-class musicians, and as traveled throughout Europe, performing in several countries. Dave writes and performs all of his own music, which is inspired by the many people and places that have been part of his life. From strangers on the back roads of Europe, to family and friends near and far, a multitude of influences have contributed to his compositions. Daves first studio recording, Tomorrow, received outstanding reviews from many in the music community; Outstanding, and Awesome CD were typical comments. Dave recently completed his next CD, Along the Curve. Like his prior recordings, Along the Curve features all-original material, including some of Daves most beautiful melodies, such as The Offering and Stephanies Lullaby. Dave is also working with noted Dallas arranger, composer, and conductor Steve Bayless, having several of his compositions transcribed for orchestra. Steve has already completed several pieces, and several more will be completed by the end of summer, 2006. All of these songs will be available for performance with piano and symphonic groups of any size. Dave occasionally performs to enthusiastic crowds in numerous venues around Dallas, Texas.
