Travis and Chad met at Texas State University and began jamming acoustic guitars together. Both developed a love of reggae music while growing up with influences such as Bob Marley and the Wailers, Toots and the Maytals, UB40, Sublime, The Police, The Clash, Ini Kamoze, Half Pint, Barrington Levy, Dennis Brown etc. It was the energy and good vibes of reggae that influenced Travis and Chad to begin EFC and write music of their own. Since, EFC has formed a reggae style that fuses hints of surf and rock, as well as TX influenced blues and country. Travis Damron(vocals, guitar) heads the group with sweet vocals and guitar playing. Chad Manes(bass, vocals)provides the backbone of EFC with smooth-flowing bass lines and backup vocals. Dustin Hall, a math-metal experienced drummer became EFC's drummer in Summer of 2004 and provides the band with a form of raw technicality that easily lends itself to outside influences other than reggae. Rodney Howell(saxophone) was added to EFC in May '05 and provides yet another sweet melody to the music by accompanying the band on saxophone. EFC's goal is to make positive music that people can relate to and move to, and that they enjoy listening to themselves. Recently, the guys have been traveling their homestate making a name for themselves in Texas and working on material for their second release expected in Spring of 2006. Rob Fitzpatrick(Cloudesign), does amazing original artwork for the band including their website(efcmusic.com), cd designs, and show handbills. Each winter break EFC accompanies Lifestylezfor a college winter/ski tour(lifestylezfor more details).
