Erin won on JEOPARDY and spent the money making this debut album of her comedy, story, and romantic songs, performed with her pretty voice and one Yamaha keyboard. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover Details: Erin McGrew is a young actress and musician performing in her native Dallas. She received her BA in Music (voice and harpsichord) from William and Mary. When she won on Jeopardy, she used her prize money to produce her first album, GARNET, which consists of twelve songs that she wrote, sang, and played on keyboards. Two songs from the album are featured in the comedy OCEAN FRONT PROPERTY, for which Erin won Best Supporting Actress at the 2005 Trenton Film Festival. Reviews for GARNET: "This elegant, English-like, pop musical collection of original songs is a delightful synthesis of poetry, storytelling, and enchanting melody. Think of a mix of Andrew Lloyd Webber showtunes, Irish ballads, and pop rock." -- Gary Schnitzer, moodmusic.com "An album well worth owning ... Erin McGrew demonstrates a rare talent and sincerity. In the vein of Prince and Don Henley, this artist performs all the instruments herself, writes, and sings. Her range of styles is impressive." -- Dan Hermes, hermesorchestra.com "This CD is a real JEWEL ... Erin McGrew is an extremely talented songwriter and this album shows just how diverse she is ... definitely put this on your CD "must-have" list." -- Gordon Nicol, scotchproductions.com Erin's musical influences include Kate Bush, Billy Joel, Bach, the Beatles, Ben Folds, Sarah Brightman, Tony Banks, and Victor Borge. And Steely Dan, even though they don't have a capital B.
