Groove Enforcers featuring Lyck delivers a hot new electro house anthem with a surprising retro twist thanks to the exclusive collaboration of Nick Beggs from Kajagoogoo. Lyck has also been featured on Central Sevens cover of If I Were You (2006). 7 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Electro, ELECTRONIC: Hi-NRG Details: Who are Groove Enforcers? They are the mysterious dynamic duo that vows to take clubland by force! For their debut into international club stardom, they teamed up with the extremely talented team of beautiful Danish vocalist Lyck, and producer extraordinaire MikeBilla, on the soon to be mega smash hit, "A Little Closer". From there, they rounded up an amazing group of producers from all corners of the globe, to inflict some serious damage on dancefloors and radio stations worldwide! The Young Punx best known for their work on the huge hit by Eric Prydz "Call On Me", works their special brand of magic on the main video mix. A Little Closer also features a very special guest appearance from Nick Beggs of 80's pop megastars, Kajagoogoo, for a special retro twist. Hot, sultry, electro house, with an unexpected retro twist! This is Groove Enforcers. ABOUT LYCK Lyck started her illustrious career very early, singing in different projects and musicals. She received a good solid education education in a Danish music school, where she studied with one of one of Demark's leading vocal trainers in classical music. Lyck has performed in clubs all over Denmark, and has made occasional guest appearances on Television shows in The Netherlands and Germany. In the late 90's Lyck toured and performed alongside with such big names as Sash, The Tamperer, Infernal, Whighfield, Toy Box , Venga Boys, and Captain Jack. Currently, she is busy writing songs for her debut album in collaboration with MikeBilla and Darwich. Lyck recently teamed up with the successful German producer Central Seven on a superb cover of Candee Jay's hit "If I Were You" which rocketed to Number 4 on the German charts, just days after it's release!
