A quirky foot stompin combination of in-your-face rock and roll and chunky, frantic electric blues. 8 MP3 Songs
BLUES: Rockin' Blues, ROCK: Classic Rock Details: People think of the guitarist singer songwriter, typically they think of folks like David Gray, Dan Fogelberg, James Taylor...you know the type. Some sensitive dude in a turtleneck strumming softly and singing about his feelings near the fireplace at the ski lodge or in some quaint coffeehouse. This Guy ain't nothing like that. These guitar-propelled tunes are typically tinted on the blue side, musically speaking. Elements of Blues, old school R&B and the occasional Twang are nailed together with a Rock 'n' Roll sensibility, the recipe calling for light on experimentation and introspection, and heavy on the pulse and groove of the song. Here are some excerpts from recent reviews of Guy's material: DEMORAMA'S TOP HONORS "KICKERS OF ASS" LIST FOR 2002, REVIEW BY LUIS FISKE: "Bergeron deftly carries both the bluesman look and the sound. With a solid voice that's a combo of David Clayton-Thomas, Springsteen (sans the pretentiousness) and his own stylings, Bergeron nimbly handles a variety of sounds, touching on jazz, blues, folk, country and intelligent pop." SPARECHANGE MAGAZINE'S LADY K, LIVIN IN THE VALLEY REVIEW: "Vocally and musically, he fits this (blues) genre like a key into a lock. If you like bands like the Fabulous Thunderbirds, be sure to give this guy a listen." MUSES MUSE REVIEWER STACEY BOARD: "Guy's bio says he is a native of Massachusetts but someone must be UPSing him some grits and gravy. This east coast man has more than his share of twang and blues in his music." Guy's #3 CD release, this one is a mix of blues rock, straight out rock and roll, and R&B. Light on the introspection and heavy on the pulse, riddled with crunchy guitar and solid grooves...many cuts are suitable for dancing or head banging.
