A song-driven alternative rock/pop feast with something for everyone. 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: 90's Rock, POP: Power Pop Details: Powered by the songs and unique voice of David D'Alessio, Let's English delivers radio-ready alterna-pop/rock, burnt out listeners gasp for. It's a typical rock quartet...with a twist. Sure there's Collin Scott on lead guitar (Supersuckers), Michelle Kushner on bass and vocals (Nowhere Man), and even a drummer named Tommy! But what makes this quartet unique is rhythmic loops and unique synthesized landscapes via David's keyboard-footpedal-laptop rig. The Tucson Weekly says "a talented songwriter...every song delivers a melodic hook that few songwriters can wield effectively." Hear why KXCI put Let's English on it's top 10 local list for 2003.
