Acoustic folk on the rocks with a twist 14 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, POP: Quirky Details: To attend one of Nancy's shows is to forget your problems for a while. She has a gift for transcending time and taking the audience with her. She can set any tone from melancholy to sassy to blues to old country twang to upbeat rock 'n roll. Her quick-witted humor and ability to make people feel involved and welcomed make for more than just a musical show. "I've gained a loyal following and the reputation as 'A one-woman show where the heckler is at the mic'. I'd define my style as acoustic folk on the rocks with a twist." Nancy shares her music regularly around the Soldotna-Kenai area in south central Alaska. She enjoys playing the coffee house/restaurant scene and music festivals. She has opened for artists like Xavier Rudd, Amy Rigby, Radoslav Lorkovic and Kaki King in the World Music for the Kenai concert series. One of Nancy's favorite quotes is by author Anne Lamott "You can safely assume that you've created God in your own image when it turns out that God hates all the same people you do."
