A pop/rock kaleidoscope of individuals band together to make fresh new sound in today's cookie cutter music scene. Music that harkens back to the popular culture they were raised on in the 70's, 80's, and 90's and distinctly Sweet...like Jelly. 17 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Anything But Canned... Spawned by both a shared musical vision and the need to blow off day-job steam, Sweet Jelly is the result of five+ creative years (2000-2006) by five former co-workers. Originally formed as the song-writing brainchild of co-animation artists Aaron Johnson (bass) and Carol Kroll (vocals), Sweet Jelly quickly found its voice in the contributions of Lance Dobersek and Rob Miller (lead and rhythm guitar, respectively), playing its first full band show to a capacity crowd on Feb. 7, 2003 in Racine, quickly garnering a local buzz and dedicated fan base. Building upon their growing following with local and regional shows, the band was simultaneously recording its work in its basement and professional studios. November of 2005 saw the addition of a new drummer (Anthony Kreft) and the release of the bands debut full-length album, Jelly Happens. Completely self-produced against all odds, SJs 16 tracks are a testament to the bands diehard, DIY attitude and is enjoying both domestic and international exposure, in addition to internet radio attention, with great support from the bands hometown station WLUM 102.1, and a growing number of online downloads. Maintaining an active live performance schedule, Sweet Jelly is fortunate to receive invitations for performances at some of the regions best venues, having built strong relationships with both club owners and other regional bands. The band continues to write new material and perform consistently, with new recordings continually popping up on their Wisconsin Area Music Industry (WAMI) nominated website. In a world where many bands struggle to imitate each other, Sweet Jelly refuses to be intimidated.
