The Ginn Sisters perform americana music with harmonies, flute and guitar. "Generally Happy" displays a solid foundation of great country, blues, and folk music. 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: Tiffani sings lead, plays guitar, and writes the songs. She has been on stage as a singer, dancer and actor since her earliest days. Her writing reflects her upbringing: Country, Folk, and Blues woven with delicious melodies, compelling characters and universal experiences. She sings with a powerful and athletic voice that can sparkle, smolder, and drive. Brit sings harmonies and plays flute. Her harmonies blend seamlessly and beautifully. They range from traditional to quirky and are always just the right ingredient. Her virtuoso flute playing, honed by years of formal study, lends an instrumental expression that is both masterful and instinctive. Both of these women bring remarkable talents and skills to the table, but it is the combination that creates the magic that is The Ginn Sisters. They stand out, turn heads, and shine a little brighter. "Generally Happy", produced by Darcie Deaville and recorded at Cedar Creek Studio in Austin (birthplace of the Dixie Chicks' "Home") is their critically acclaimed debut CD. It was recorded "live in the studio" with excellent musicians and stripped down production. Their packed house CD release party at the venerable Cactus Cafe established them as rising stars in the milky way of talent that is Austin.
