Details: Wayne Faust has 30 years of experience entertaining people from all over the world - performing regularly at such prestigious spots as Sloppy Joe's in Key West, Tiffany's at Beaver Run in Breckenridge, Colorado, and in England and Holland. His original songs are heard on the radio in places as far away as Australia. Both as a solo performer and as a member of the comedy-music duo Faust Lewis, Wayne has done over 5000 shows. His live show can turn any evening into a party - a night full of great music, comedy, and improvisation. And most of all, fun. Lots of fun. And now Wayne has recorded a new CD of songs containing more of his trademark funny songs, including a tribute to Chicago Cubs fans called "One Hundred Years" and a hilarious takeoff on political exaggerations called "Politics 101." It also includes 4 serious tracks, including a heartfelt tribute to Dads everywhere called "My Father's Not the President." This is some of Wayne's finest material.
