If you bought this book chances are you are a member of an affiliate program or you own a website that sells a product or service. Maybe you havent gotten that far and are investigating looking into those things, along with how you go about marketing them. Regardless, you have come to the right place. Why? It is because email marketing is one of the most effective and affordable marketing methods you can use to promote a website. Most of the gurus that you see talking about making thousands on the Internet at some point in time have used an email list. Even companies as established as Amazon use email marketing, and they are famous enough that they wouldnt have to use it. Indeed, no matter what level your company is on, no other forms of marketing establish the one-on-one personal type of relationship that is established through email communication.
