Details: Bruce Maier is a singer-songwriter, musician and producer who has over three hundred compositions to his credit. Bruce has written for Cori Sachs of Las Vegas, for her debut album "Stand Up For Truckers " and with James E. Gass Jr. AKA Eddy James on CD Baby, as well as provided numerous radio and television backgrounds. Road Of Dreams contains eleven of Bruce's finest achievements in a multi-genre format, taking the listeners through Pop, Rock, R&B, ballads, folk acoustic, Blues and Smooth Jazz. Beginning his career as an entertainer at the age of seven, Bruce dreamed of becoming a Broadway star but by the time he was fourteen, had discovered other forms of music, Country and Rock, Blues, Jazz and many others that would cause a major shift in interest. Bruce Maier has traveled throughout the United States and Canada as a live performing artist, making his living as both a solo artist and front-man band leader for over thirty years. Bruce is the publisher of the popular Indie web magazine Damn Good Tunes, or damngoodtunes and has been writing about and featuring independent artists for over two years, with a staff of six writers and hundreds of artists whom have been served well by the publication. Bruce in his entrepreneurial passions, also teaches artists and others how to improve their health and to be totally self sufficient financially. Recently, Bruce Maier was hired to produce and host an AM radio talk show in Las Vegas Nevada called Journey To Wellness which is streamed worldwide. Bruce's original music is used for the openings, closings and all the commercials related to the program. Road Of Dreams is an outstanding work and is family safe, meaning that there is nothing negative about the music that one could not share with one's children, school, church or workplace. Environmentally conscientious and a proponent of health and exercise, Bruce Maier enjoys walking, hiking, motorcycles, concerts and travel.
