Contemporary gospel, praise and worship in the eclectic folk rock style of Jackson Browne and James Taylor 12 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, GOSPEL: Country Gospel Details: The praise and worship music on this CD is a wonderful mix of genres and styles from singer/songwriter David Booth. You can hear his Eastern Kentucky roots in the title song Worker in the Harvest. You will find the blues in Perfect Heart and Train of Grace and country/rock in Come to Me. There is even a Latin influence in the drum tinged Joy. Joining David are some of Nashvilles best musicians including Andy Gurley, guitar, Jonathon Willis, keyboards, Tracy Ferrie, bass, Tom Hoey, drums and percussion and Jimmy Bowland, sax. His life long friends and fellow Eastern Kentucky musicians and singers, Carla Hunter, Cindy Holloway and Rob Holloway provide backing vocals. Then He said to His disciples, The Harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the Harvest, therefore, to send out workers into His harvest field. Matthew 9:37-38
