-A.D. Records _____ WHAT DOES IT

SOUND LIKE So far, the opinions about this CD are as varied as the tracks themselves. If you're looking for a category, 'eclectic-indie-pop-rock' has been suggested. If you're looking for a 'sounds like', well then, it's been compared to everything from 'Lennon-esque Beatles pop' to 'Orbison meets Morrison' (Jim or Van, take your pick) with a splash of 'Chris Cornell meets Jack Johnson' and a pinch of 'Tom Petty meets The Cure'. And if that's not enough, check out these pre-release reviews from around the country. "The songwriting skills showcased on the New Dim Lit Daylight album are amazing. It is one of the most creatively written albums i've heard in a long while." -Marc C. | L.L.Entertainment-Lafayette, LA

"FANTASTIC !!! This is a major hit. I'm totally blown away. Every track is a classic. A genius at work.

Rarely does something like this come around. Soulful and straight from the heart. I'm hooked" - Keith T. |

Springfield, OH "WOW, listened to the music and it's all stylized out. I love it!" - Stephanie H. | Austin,

TX "So diverse and different, yet fun and familiar at the same time. Great stuff, keep it up." - Sarah M. |

Astoria, NY _____ WHO IS DIM LIT

DAYLIGHT Dim Lit Daylight is the latest release from A.D. Records, an indie label from Pasadena since 1996, and features an eclectic mix of songs written, recorded and produced by singer/songwriter Joshua

Free. For the past ten years, Joshua was a songwriter/performer in a nationally touring indie 'folk-rock' band (THR3). Songs he has written have found their way into both television and movies and have won international awards. Dim Lit Daylight is a culmination of both his experience and timeless songwriting skills. Joshua currently lives in Southern California and operates an Independent Record Label and Publishing Company with his 10+ year business partner and close friend, Anthony D. Montanino.
