A collaborative improvisational acoustic duo performing imaginative original music rooted in Colombian Andean string music. Creative music that seamlessly moves from South American musical folklore to free improvisation. 7 MP3 Songs in this album (50:43) ! Related styles: WORLD: South American, JAZZ: World Fusion People who are interested in Dino Saluzzi Egberto Gismonti Chano Domnguez should consider this download. Details: Originally from Bogot Colombia, pianist Ricardo Gallo and guitarist Alejandro Florez have been generating several projects that relate contemporary musical expressions to the musical traditions of their homeland. In this duo project, they present their own pieces inspired by the string music from the Colombian Andes. Alejandro Florez plays in this project tiple and bandola, two traditional string instruments from the region. Gallo and Florez explore the possibilities of improvisation departing from the sounds and the compositions of this unlikely duo.
