raw,grimy,lyrical hip-hop by one of the Soul Kid/Wu Legends. 7 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hardcore Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: East Coast Details: INFAMOUS "Who be dat ill nigga creepin' out da jungle....." Dat "ill nigga" be Da Infamous Mr. Savage from his fiery delivery on Mortal Combat, released on Soul Kid Records in late 1995. In 1992, Da Infamous Mr. Savage came to the attention of producer G-Clef, Da Mad Komposer. G-Clef then began the task of honing the skills of this wild and fearsome street rapper into a seasoned and radio-friendly emcee., without losing that rugged edge that made him infamous! Infamous is truly a versatile songwriter: hardcore, street, freestyle, even smooth and laid back styles are all perfectly complimented by the wide mood ranges of G-Clef's beats. His freestyle and battle skills are augmented by his talent for dropping lyrical jewels such as "with da ill tune I'm bringing pain soon to the one who imitates me like he's Shang Tsung!" (for those who aren't familiar with the video game Mortal Kombat, Tsung is a sorcerer who can assume the spirit of any of his adversaries!) His concept remains simple: "Infamous" vs. Da World in Mortal Combat!!!
