"Stand." is "THE WORD" set to a beat that makes you wanna get up, dance, celebrate, and praise the Lord. 12 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban Details: 2004 is shaping up to be the year of JASPER STREET CO. ("JSC"). Following the commercial and critical success of their remix compilation, "Interpretations," and the chart-topping singles "Praisin' His Name" featuring the legendary Ann Nesby (of Sounds of Blackness) and "Another Day," JSC now unveils "Stand!" the group's debut full-length release on Basement Boys Records' new God's House Records sub-label. JSC's "Stand!" is a testament to the powerful fusion of faith and soul. "Stand!" has been receiving a tremendous amount of pre-release hype and praise, as advance copies have led to radio airplay in NYC, Philadelphia, Detroit, Baltimore, Chicago, DC and Greensboro. A multitude of album cuts, such as "Got Me Going," "God Helps Those (Who Help Themselves)," "Praisin' His Name," "Joy" and "He's Alright," are being embraced by gospel and mainstream radio. The gospel-house scene is exploding, with a rich diversity that is bringing new fans to faith-based music. JSC is primed to be celebrated as a leader of the new gospel-house movement with "Stand!" Known and loved for their infectious club tracks, like the album's lead singles "Praisin' His Name" and "God Helps Those (Who Help Themselves)," JSC serves up more gospel-house gems with "Joy" and "Another Day." With "He's Alright," "The Calling" and "Got Me Going," JSC captures the joy, revelation and celebration of a raucous Sunday afternoon in a Southern Baptist church. Songs like "No Deliveries Today," "Don't Worry" and "Stand On The Word" undeniably show the influence of R&B and soul on the group. Altogether "Stand!" is a celebration of life and prayer that delivers a strong spiritual message, offering hope in a troubling time, and it does so with a beat that will get the listener up and out of his or her seat. Now more than ever, the world is not only ready for, but is also woefully in need of, the soulful sermon being preached by JSC.
