

Mp3 John Paulson-Larry Price Quintet - Mobley Street Blues

DOWNLOAD HERE

The John Paulson-Larry Price plays burnin' acoustic jazz that pays tribute to the great trumpet/tenor bands of the early Blue Note Lps. 11 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo, JAZZ: Bebop Details: "Mobley St. Blues" CD notes This recording is the second collaborative effort by John Paulson Larry Price. Their first was the CD recording "Tower Blues" released in 2001. Since then, the quartet represented on that recording was featured on Minnesota Public Radio's famed "Morning Show" as well as performing at numerous venues throughout the Midwest. "Tower Blues," along with other CD's by John Paulson are now available on the CDbabyand iTunes web sites. Their latest recording "Mobley St. Blues" includes 10 new compositions by Price and Paulson along with one new arrangement of a previously recorded tune. The new quintet includes John Paulson on saxes and flute, Larry Price on piano, Richard Hammergren, trumpet; bassist Karyn Quinn and drummer Rich MacDonald. These musicians in have over 100 years of collective experience playing and teaching jazz throughout U.S.A and internationally.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: