Kim's unyielding sense of purpose is evident both on and off stage. As for the depth of her character, she is humble - but not meek. She is submissive - but not subservient. Kim Person is a strong woman of God. Raised in a small town in North Carolina, her grandparents were determined she was destined to make a difference in the music industry. From the age of 2, they stood her up on a cement block and let her minister to crowds in song. Today, as a national recording artist, her compelling sound has touched the hearts of many and has helped many to quench their thirsty spirits. Kim's experiences have given her the privilege of performing at select major venues for legendary favorites like Donnie McClurkin, Angelo Veronica, Bishop TD Jakes, Vicki Winans, Deitrick Damita Haddon, Kurt Carr, Hezekiah Walker, Karen Clark-Sheard, Helen Baylor, Yolanda Adams, and more. Kim tours nationally and her extensive schedule keeps her busy spreading the "good news". The ministry of her music has been seen on The Inspirational Network (INSP), The Black Entertainment Today (BET), The Word Network, NBS, ABS and CBS - reaching audiences of over 100 million viewers. Applauded for her vocal range, melodic sensitivity and ability to evoke the presence of God through music, Kim has performed at numerous major conventions including the 2001 Gospel Music Workshop of America (GMWA), Shirley Caesar's Outreach Convention and Springfest 2001.
