Details: Miss Lynn's favorite things are singing and being with kids. Performing songs from her new CD, "Outside the Lines," gives her the opportunity to do both! After many years of not-quite-fitting into more conventional jobs (including as a Children's Librarian and Director of Christian Education), Miss Lynn was inspired to follow a more unique path--writing and performing music for kids. The title song from her CD, "Outside the Lines," deals with the theme of doing things your own way. She hopes it will inspire listeners to find their own paths, too! Before she started writing and performing music for kids, Miss Lynn worked as a Children's Librarian (in New Jersey and Tennessee) and as a Director of Children's Ministry (also in NJ and TN!) Miss Lynn got her Bachelor's degree in German Studies from Vassar College (Poughkeepsie, NY), and her Master's in Library Service from Rutgers University (New Brunswick, NJ). Her favorite color is yellow.
