Music for guitar, cello, and trumpet. Eugene Chabourne of ALL MUSIC GUIDE says: "A treasure trove of a listening experience; indeed, there are moments that are so beautifully done it seems as if one is sifting through a basket of jewels." 16 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Weird Jazz, CLASSICAL: Contemporary Details: The New American Wing, founded by composer and guitarist Daniel Raimi, combines the unique instrumentation of trumpet, cello, and guitar into a stylistically diverse and beautiful modern music. With Jacob Varmus (trumpet) and Erica Sattin (cello), the group performs original compositions and arrangements that range in style from Impressionistic to Americana, from freely improvised jazz to haunting country ballads. Each piece demonstrates a different approach to the challenges of America's immense pool of music, with the simple qualities of direct personal expression. While the music spans a wide range of styles, it avoids the traps of self-conscious genre hopping. Most of the music is notated, but there are occasional areas of improvisation that alternately stand out or blend in with a given piece.
