this is a story of hunger...a little something for every type of hip hop lover...each song gives u a lil something different to vibe with...go on and check this out... 14 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: East Coast Details: SEIS FIFTH- THE COMPLICATED BIRTH CHECK IT OUT September 10th, 1984..Does this date mean something to you? Maybe not. But to Josh Eidenschink (Seis Fifth) this was his day. The first day into the Journey of the Complicated Birth. I got the name Seis Fifth because I only have 6 fingers. Seis is 6 in Spanish and I used fifth as 5 or even a fifth of henny. So a lot of this album you will hear reference to my hand and some situations I dealt with and how I feel about it. Mainly this album is a story of hunger and pain. Whether you are bobbing ya head to Gon' Bang or reminiscing to Murder Murder. This is an album waiting to burst through the underground scene. It has a little something for everyone. The flows are switched up through out the CD. One song will be fast and the next slowed down. But still versatile with each different track. I'm a 20 year old Hispanic/white rapper from Camp Hill. Living with my family and about to have my own. Life is all about grinding, hustling, and getting yours in whatever you do. I'm not just talking about illegal hustling and what not. This music is my grind and I'm just trying to get at least a finger on the plate. If you feeling my music show some support and purchase a CD. E-mail with me any questions or ideas...SeisFifth65@aol.com to all my fans and/or music loving web browsers...it's important to me that even if you don't buy a cd you could take a couple extra seconds to post a review. It's not a bad thing to give a bad review...i appreciate honesty. Otherwise i'll base my career off of lies...so let me know what you think...thanx
