COUNTRY: Country Rock, COUNTRY: Country Pop Details: Stephanie Thomson is the real deal. Down to earth, yet immensely talented, this Canadian talent can be compared to the likes of Barbara Mandrell. Entertaining, diverse and star quality. With her diverse background, she has earned the reputation as one of the top entertainers in her home country of Canada. Starting out in gospel music touring with American Grammy Award winning writer Geoff Thurman, Stephanie performed in various venues as well as many versatile shows in dinner theatre productions. Upon winning a famous Canadian Country Talent Contest, she finally released her debut album "Almost Blue" in 1997, and, toured the country until she 'paid her dues'. Since then, it has been non-stop with more recording, a third album of ALL her won writings and her own company, 'Paige Productions' producing shows overseas for the Canadian Armed Forces Troops, singing alongside many internationally famous acts. Stephanie has personality, charisma, and talent. Steph can play saxophone, dance and wow a crowd with her energy. Steph has most recently become a proficient writer, co-writing with top writers such as Phil Swann (Dreamworks Songs) and Chris Burke-Gaffney (hit show Providence, Canadian sensations Chantel Kreviazuk and McMaster James) and Stan Meissner (Celine Dion). Steph emulates a unique style that is truly her own. Although in her live show she sings anything from Heart to 80's dance medleys, Steph formats her albums for the country pop markets. She is a cross-over, world class entertainer vocalist.
