The Quilt is a collection of handmade tunes, played and sung by live people with real instruments. Thomas Boyd writes about life, and death, and dental hygiene, and some other things that captured his attention. This CD is a big thank-you note to all the singers and players who have influenced Thomas Boyds songwriting and performing. He has entertained audiences from Seattle to New York City, worked the Jersey Shore bar that later became home base for Bruce Springsteen, and he invites you now to sample a bit of The Quilt to hear whats on his mind. NOTE: a portion of each sale is going to some charities chosen by the folks who played and sang on this CD. So have some fun and do some good! "It's lovely! A really good feeling to it. . .a great job of providing musical support which points up the variety and depth of your writing. I love the asides and the talking. . .Relaxed. Inviting us in."
