Sometimes beautiful... sometimes disturbing these original songs describe our derelict cities and those Ghost Ships. 5 MP3 Songs FOLK: Power-folk, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Toby Wainwright Johns sits with his legs rooted to one spot and dreams his head off! Haloes Sundogs need to be heard as they are needed to be seen...a quest for the crystal refraction to light up the right left cerebral hemispheres via all natural phenomena... lie on your back and gaze into the beautiful night whilst Toby lifts the veil from that sheltered day life.... Haloes Sundogs is the second release...The first: The Creatures with Beautiful Eyes appeared in 2004... a raw chastisement from medieval Europe and can still be purchased toby@avocadomusic... now Haloes Sundogs recorded in S.E. London and in The Golden Valley Herefordshire UK brings you up to date before he records a full length album that more and more of his fans are expecting... global reality is his warming... Toby wants you sing along with him...if you can...if you dare...growl and chant at your cat and forget the neighbours...the nightmare will not stop at the end of the world, however new your trainers are, you can run longer than Forest Gump and your beard can grow more confused than a Boabab tangle only to catch the first train to St Petersburg...the goats are making a terrible mess from the high trees but dont worry those guerrillas are coming with nice new guns to help disperse the ruins of old thoughts and basic understanding replacing the commonplace with the conglomerate of her high priestess mall (buy one and get one!!!) hold your breath heres an old friend, Mine Tinsel and what on earth is Don doing all dressed up to the nines...clubbing...a bruising experience! Now Tinsel reckons she can scare the pants of June which would have been true had she not been having a rotten time in the Mediterranean...she has just learnt that fishing has been banned by those Tuna yuppies, the Phoenicians! At last the fun has come out and is melting the Haloes from those drips the Sundogs, so if you have been in a Maserati on a Tuesday you will know that acceleration to the next world can only be possible when clouded green lights manifest a certain vibration down the end of a long long long pier...slowly it dawns on you that the best way to close a chapter of inertia is to get up and let your own dreams become naked to the fields of delicacy and friendship...so to the Halo to the Sundog we salute you in passing and thank you for a safe passage but now its our turn. Salut
