A Bristol Tennessee native, resides in PA and continues to be active in keeping the sound of Philadelphia alive. Smoke, known for his rugged and powerful voice, delivers once again in four strong songs that reflect his message of Life and Love. Each song was carefully selected to say something profound about todays issues and relationships. First up is Say It, a mid-tempo groove with a message on the minds of many brothers. With strong lyrics from Smoke and powerful production from PAs Kirk Boyer, the song fits well in a mix alongside Charlie Wilson and Anthony Hamilton. Deeper is a strong, heartfelt ballad which has some vocal resemblance to that of Teddy Pendergrass and Al Green, written by Ron Foster, former keyboardist for Ecstasy Passion and Pain. Smokes daughter, Tahlmia, adds some searing backgrounds in support of her fathers soothing lead. Call Me (After Sundown) adds some humor and funk in light of todays tough economic situation. In The Mirror features the messenger side of Smoke in a hip hop vain. He and rapper Marino paint a vivid picture of the issues facing many young people in todays tough times. message on. Smoke is still here and doing it well! CONTACT: Jay St. Records Harry Henderson P: 201
