Follow your Bliss to the tropics. Ten creamy, raucous, fun and infectious rock tunes from the islands and beyond. Bring the sunscreen. 10 MP3 Songs POP: California Pop, ROCK: Classic Rock Details: Island Bliss! Alien Bliss is the pop alter ego of Michael Hodjera, singer, song writer, multi-instrumentalist, record producer and author. Several of the songs on this CD were written during a year-long stay in the islands which, besides inspiring this CD, also spawned two novels. Find out more about what Michael Hodjera has been up to lately and listen to all the songs on this CD in their entirety before you buy at the brilliant, brand new michaelhodjerawebsite by clicking on the link below! Bucket o Bolts is a pumped little ditty about crimes without victims. Its also a cautionary tale about underestimating someone based on their age. This is cowboy rock n roll on steroids. Island Girl is a transparent metaphor for the island experience in its most positive manifestation. This is the Hawaii we love. Shaka! Prejudice is a reggae-style look at racial bias in the islands cleverly disguised as a love song. Elvis In Milolii drips Elvisness and was written in lieu of the novel that eventually succeeded it, "The Return of the King: an Elvis novel," now available through all the usual online outlets and through a bookstore near you. Be sure to check out the exciting sequel "Bright Light City" which has just been published. Peles Got a Hold On Me is a song about the famous island goddess of the volcano. Love Her Soa slightly idiosyncratic love song, a personal favorite. Where The Warm Winds Blow is the first song I wrote upon arriving on the Big Island and is perhaps the most quintessentially island-style song on the project. Cant Be Elviswho says? Check out my books! Mental Feng Shui a rockin like R B number about psycho-spiritual house cleaning. And finally Hard Rock Lava Stone a tongue in cheek song about the relief of getting back to the islands after a sojourn on the bad ole mainland. Aloha nui for now!
