SAN JUAN CITY MAGAZINE ARDNAXELA (a.k.a Alexandra Rosa) presents her debut CD TELECINE DE LA TARDE CON ARDNAXELA, released independently in 2005 to great critical acclaim. The video clips for EL SELLO and the subtle, emotional track TIRIJALA is receiving rotation on TV music channels in USA and Puerto Rico, while her loyal feverish following chant her songs at her live performances. This musical work is a direct result of a strong cultural influence mixing Puerto Rican, Mexican and Spanish musical elements with unique lyrical content matched by an excellent harmonic and rhythmic structure making who is ARDNAXELA, who was born in San Juan, Puerto Rico. At age 6 she studied classical ballet, which introduced her to feel music from deep within. At age 8 she started taking piano lessons and eventually kicked her teacher out of her house because she wanted to improvise her own songs.

ARDNAXELA (her name backwards) reflects her alter ego (symbolized as a smiling green alien cartoon which she created herself), radiating her oneness, totally free and uninhibited. While in college, Alexandra picked up acting and participated in TV and theater, while singing and performing with the local Indie bands Plasticina, Infamia All Stars and MupSiquita (with musicians from Superaquello). She later joined the band Vivanativa (Universal), toured Mexico and Spain while opening concerts for Grammy winners La Ley and Ricky Martin. In a short time she realized that it was time to start her own career as a solo artist and she immersed heavily into songwriting. Sandro de Amrica from Argentina tops the list of artists that has influenced her musically. Followed by Cocteau Twins, Pili and Mili, Pink Floyd, Jeff Buckley, Roco Durcal, Dusty Springfield, Silvia Rexach and The Pixies. ARDNAXELA is currently on a USA tour promoting her record.
