Sultry Pop, country, rock and blues 12 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover, COUNTRY: Country Rock Details: Born and raised in America's heartland, Autumn's passion for music flows from the inspired soul of the Midwest. Devoted to the piano by age six, Autumn's expansive repertoire includes voice, drums, flute, and guitar. With scholarship offers from across the country, Autumn chose the prestigious music program at the University of Texas in Austin, graduating in 2004 with a degree in Classical Piano. During these formative college years, she discovered and honed a talent and desire for songwriting. In her junior year at UT, Autumn discovered a second calling, accepting an internship with KAMX's "JB and Sandy Morning Show" - the #1-rated radio program in Austin. Renown radio hosts, JB Hager and Sandy Rivers quickly recognized Autumn's aptitude and drive, selecting her for the coveted position as their on-air sidekick. Currently the female voice of the celebrated show, listeners have avidly followed Autumn on her exciting journey as a songwriter and radio personality. In 2006, Autumn signed a record deal with Highway 29 Records. Collaborating with acclaimed musicians and producers Walt Wilkins and Tim Lorsch, Autumn recorded her debut album, "Sugarcane" - released June 2006. Enlisting the support of an impeccable songwriting pool including Walt Wilkins, Bruce Robison, Patty Griffin, newcomer Heather Morgan, and British icon, Robbie Williams - "Sugarcane" is a rich mosaic, highlighting Autumn's expansive vocal style and range. Whimsical and sweet, honest and sincere, insightful and poignant - "Sugarcane" is like an infinite stretch of open blue skies, the smell of tall grass in the rain, or the warm honey-glow of fireflies on a summer night. Highlighting the nostalgic beauty of youth's simplicity, "Sugarcane" embodies the potent and joyous spirit of life. Bright, fresh, and fun - Autumn invites you on a walk through the sugarcane.
