Cindi Scheffler pulls you into her captivating world of memorable show tunes, smooth jazz and kicky cabaret. Cindi's voice resonates with rare purity and is perfectly suited to accompanist, Steve Colliers brilliant piano stylings. 10 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Cabaret, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: Originally from New York, Cindi has been performing in both theater and cabaret since she was seventeen years old. Her professional career as a singer began in 1986 after taking 1st Place in the MN State Fair Talent Competition and the State champion at the Rhunestone Music Festival. The same year she was awarded a close second to Lori Line's gospel singer Robert Robinson in a coast-to-coast Singers Challenge by Pioneer. Locally over the years she has been seen performing as the featured vocalist at the hottest venues in Minneapolis including The Dakota, Sophia Restaurant, the Marq VII Lounge and Windows on Minnesota Restaurant at the Marquette Hotel in downtown Mpls. On stage Cindi has taken leading roles in musicals such as "I Love You, You're Perfect Now Change", "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat", and "South Pacific". Her professional talents as an actress combined with her exceptional voice are put together into a one-woman cabaret show that will make you laugh and cry. On the side Cindi is a vocal coach, director, substitute music teacher and offers musical therapy to seniors. While I love to make a significant career from singing and acting my priorities lie with my husband of 19 years and my three young boys. It is for these blessings in my life and for my fans that I have created this long-awaited CD of music. So Come A Little Closer and listen to my CD debut! Enjoy!
