Craq Rooster is inviting themselves to your party. Hand over all of your money so that we might spend it on expensive foods that we probably won't even finish eating. We are the kings of your audio systems, and we demand first rate service and all of your finest belongings. We don't even care if the things you give us even belong to you in the first place. Steal your parents credit cards and use them to buy as much from us as you can. In return you'll help such godly kings create beautiful sounds that will make everyone vomit with joy. The Goosey Gangler is the debut release including some of the most classic hits. Enjoy this with your best of friends so that they too will want to purchase a copy of their own.
