" DOGG " is a native of Las Vegas, Nevada, where the inspiration for his music is derived from his lifelong survival in the ghettos of the otherwise prosperous city. Dogg created and has maintained a loyal following for his music since he began writing lyrics in the 80's. Through rough times and brushes with the law, Dogg has often had to put his music genius on the shelf. With the support of family and friends he is once again back in the studio. With his writing skills and straight forward delivery you can easily see his ability to create vivid images through his songs, often creating an emotional response for his listeners.
