

Mp3 Jazz In Blume - What A Wonderful World

DOWNLOAD HERE

This premiere 5 piece jazz band plays your favorite music and vocal standards from the classic jazz/swing era with a few contemporary favorites thrown in. 11 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Vocals, JAZZ: Swing/Big Band Details: Born of a jazz jam in Port Angeles, Washington, this quintet melded together and grew in intensity and performance from their various roots of pageantry, rock and roll, country, blues and swing to become this vibrant, alive and just plain fun Jazz in Blume. -John Nelson, The Peninsula Daily News Jazz in Blume is the premiere jazz band on the North Olympic Peninsula playing your favorites from the classic jazz/swing era. Vocalist Tracy Blume heads this stellar line up of musicians. Joining her are Ed Donohue/trumpet, Jim Rosand on piano/bass, Ray Wood/guitar and rounding out the fab five is Tom Svornich on drums. Formed in 2004, this quintet of diverse and talented musicians has kept jazz alive and well in an area where country and bluegrass reign supreme. The release of What a Wonderful World in May of 2006 marks the first CD for award winning Jazz in Blume. This new CD is being met with rave reviews by young and old alike. With the delightful mix of familiar tunes there is a little something for everyone. Paul Bragg of radio station KONP (1450 AM) was so impressed with the musicianship of the group and Tracys crystal clear vocals that he featured cuts from "What A Wonderful World" on his Sunday evening radio show, Making Memories, the entire month of June. You can find Jazz in Blume every week at their long running JazzExpress Jazz Jam at the Crazy Fish Baja and Beyond Restaurant in Port Angeles, WA and once a month at the 7 Cedars Casino in Sequim, Washington. Be sure to visit jazzinblume for all the latest news and information on this unique fun loving group of musicians. Let us entertain you!

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: