Related styles: COUNTRY: Traditional Country, EASY LISTENING: Crooners/Vocals People who are interested in Elvis Presley Marty Robbins Jim Reeves should consider this download. Details: Producer/Artist Jerry Jackson delivers soft, smooth vocals on this collection of Classic Country and Oldies hits. This album boasts of 1 original Country Ballad, 7 hit Country songs, 3 Oldie hits, and 1 Country Gospel hit. Jerrys voice is a cross between Elvis and Marty Robbins. Enjoy the sensual saxophone of Billy Gougen, the nostalgic melodic leads of Ira Harrells steel guitar, and the walking bass of Brad Jackson (Jerrys son). Goose Goodrich laid down some hot guitar licks with his Fender Strat on such tracks as Polk Salad Annie and Walking the Dog. David Hand on his blusey harmonica and Ken Howells solid drum rythmn rounded out this selection of seasoned musicians hand picked by Jerry to create some great sounds for this recording. Will I Ever Love Again (the title cut of CD), written by Jerrys life-long friend, Dale Ray, is a country ballad that tells the story of a man that has lost the love of his life and is truly lost in his confusion. This CD is a must for your collection. -----Bio----- Jerry grew in Macon, Georgia and began lip synching to songs like Alley Oop and Cathys Clown in the 60's. He then started playing guitar as a teenager. His first band was called JJ and the Nightwalkers. Other bands followed including: The Stepping Stones from Warner Robins, Ga., then Southern Express and Striker playing rock and country hits of the day. Jerry has also been a part of several Southern Gospel groups in the middle Georgia area to include: The Peacemakers Quartet, The Good News Singers, and The Tree of Life. Jerrys love for music has been influenced by the greats: Elvis Presley, Marty Robbins, Merle Haggard, and George Jones. He is often told that he sounds like Elvis and once even did an Elvis impersonation at his home church. Jerry sings Classic Country, Oldies, and Southern Gospel at music halls, family reunions, and other family oriented gatherings. He also sings Southern Gospel in his home church and other various churches throughout Georgia.
