All original music from a woman who's sung with the Count Basie Band and Muddy Waters. This music rips your heart out. 12 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, COUNTRY: Country Rock Details: Jo List is a powerful and gifted natural singer who can captivate an audience with her ability to project the essence and emotion of a song. In addition to her unique repertoire of cover tunes, Jo offers many original songs to her audiences that reflect her lyrical and melodic creativity. Jo recorded her first solo album at Long View Farm Studios. "Boys and Girls" made it to Billboard Magazine's Top 100, and enjoyed a few weeks at the top of the charts in Europe as well. Jo was also the featured female vocalist on the recording of the soundtrack for the laser light production "Lovelight". The first of its kind, "Lovelight" premiered in Boston and then toured the country. Before moving to Florida, Jo was a first-call session singer for many production houses in the Boston area, and was the primary female vocalist for rock DJ Bob Rivers' Twisted Radio production company. This group wrote and recorded many parodies for nationally syndicated radio stations. One of the projects, an album entitled "Twisted Christmas", continues to get heavy seasonal airplay - especially the single "The Twelve Pains of Christmas" - and earned Jo a gold record. When she's not sitting at her favorite beach cafe drinking too much coffee while speed-solving crossword puzzles, or reading a book, writing a song, hanging with her ya-ya's, or bee-boppin' around the island she calls home, Jo is gigging with fab guitar man Noble Hochmeister (Java Jo and the Beachnik), or torchin' it up with jazz cats Stu Shelton - keyboards, John Moak - trombone, and Sergio Pizzi - drums (Roma Quatro).
