Modern and Traditional Country 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Modern Country, COUNTRY: Country Pop Details: Born in Chicago (home of Urban Blues), raised in Arizona (winter home of Country music Canadians), lived in Boston (home of the Red Sox, Fenway Aerosmith), and resides in sunny California (home of most everything else that isn't in Nashville). Along the way, Mark has seen it, lived it, or at least heard rumors about it...whatever it is. And since he was a 15-year-old in his first band, he has written songs about it. Feelings, experiences, and stories are what he captures. The lake in which he fishes is the fabric of our lives. A strong melody line and a sharp hook are the tools of his trade. So go ahead and listen. Listen close enough and you'll soon be caught...hook, line sinker. Mark's credits truly defy category. He has worked with the incomparable Producer Hoo Doo Rhythm Devil guitarist Johnny Rewind, Pedal Steel Guitar Hall Of Fame player Bobby Black(Commander Cody, Asleep at the Wheel, Dolly Parton, Barbara Mandrell), California Country Music Pedel Steel award winner Marty Rifkin, storied studio engineer Rick Winquest, drummer John Hartman (Doobie Brothers,Nicolette Larson,Carly Simon), the late Bobby Hatfield (Righteous Brothers), bassist Dave Bronze (Eric Clapton, Art of Noise, Duane Eddy), vocalist Lezlee Livrano (Ringo Starr, Foxy, Company 'B'), drummer Steve Furgeson (New Radicals), bassist Dave Meros (Eric Burden), guitarist Mick Mashbir (Alice Cooper) and the late, great guitarist pedal-steel player Eddie Black (Linda Ronstandt, Tracy Chapman), among others too numerous or tedious to mention. Mark was once bandmates with Lowen Navarro("We Belong" Pat Benatar). He has played bongos with Harry Dean Stanton and sung "Auld Lang Syne" with Anna Maria Alberghetti at the same party! He once lived in the same apartment building as actress Demi Moore (a real sweetheart) and Marlon Brando's son Christian (before his manslaughter conviction...good thing Mark wasn't his brother-in-law). In a light-hearted moment, Mark once found himself singing 'doo-wop' with Director Milos Foreman cast members on the set of film classic "Big Wednesday" with Gary Busey. Ironically, the impromptu jam took place on a Wednesday. Fate?...who can tell. Mark has also recorded in the same studios as Frank Sinatra, Fleetwood Mac, Pink Floyd, and Glen Campbell...go figure! And played on the same bill as The Plimsoles, Don McClean, and Quicksilver Messenger Service. How diverse can one man be? It boggles the mind! Let's face it; how many decades of working next to and along with the famous, near-famous, and wannabe-near-borderline famous does it take until the talented-but-still-unknown artist steps out from behind the shadows? Seriously, aren't you the least little bit curious to give this material a listen? Truth is; the psychic palmreader Mark consulted one dizzying color-infused night quite some time back, advised him to be patient. Once he managed to get past the giant wart on her nose, he understood her message: "Success will come later rather than sooner." Alright already...it's later! Let's go people! Off the record; the hippest bookies in Las Vegas are whispering that the smart long-money is on Mark Bryson. Yup, they're touting Mark B. as the flyer for your action. After all; Mark has partied with "The Amazing Kreskin"...what are you waiting for?
