Also, you can meet their loving and more hilarious partners, who featured this project for a reality television show, at: myspace.com/americanmissionary The vision of Ocean of Love is to help kick start a worship, prayer, and youth Jesus movement throughout the Russian-speaking world Russian speaking countries cover 13 time zones! There is an incredible need for original, unique, modern Russian worship. Proceeds from this first album will go 100 to build a studio for Ocean of Love. They will record and produce the rest of their (currently) 90 original songs, as well as make the Studio available to other worship artists from around Ukraine and Russia to utilize at cost or free. Once revenue from this album meets the humble $25,000 budget , a secure building in Krivoy Rog, and all professional recording equipment shall be purchased at cost from wholesale companies. From there, their vision is to produce the largest and best line of Russian Christian music available today. To produce top-quality original Russian worship, and make it easily available around the world is their goal. Setting hearts on fire for the One whose hearts burn for them that is their motivation. As the music spreads and the movement grows, it is their desire to hold great concerts of worship, prayer, and teaching throughout Russian-speaking nations. Currently, there is no original Russian worship movements. They are still translating Hillsongs, Delirious, and Vineyard (which is good), but dont have anything national to call their ownuntil now. Jana Zharov, the bands leader and songwriter, lives with her husband Roma in their humble flat in Krivoy Rog, Ukraine. She regularly leads worship at Church of Praise and assists in evangelistic outreaches to unreached villages throughout the nation.
