

Mp3 Pam Steinfeld - Open Hands

DOWNLOAD HERE

A contemporary folk/pop CD rich with catchy melodies, vivid images, and thought-provoking lyrics. Award-winning songwriter has been likened to Mary Chapin Carpenter and Joni Mitchell. 12 MP3 Songs

FOLK: Modern Folk, POP: Folky Pop Details: Pam Steinfeld has been likened to some of the best singer/songwriters in the country, including Joni Mitchell, Lucy Kaplansky, and Mary Chapin Carpenter. Pam has over 20 songwriting awards to her credit, including 6 from the Billboard Song Contest. Since the release of her WAMMIE-nominated CD "Open Hands," she has performed throughout the Mid-Atlantic region, sharing the stage with Richie Havens, Debi Smith, Chuck Brodsky, Bill Staines, Mark Erelli, Tom Prasada-Rao among others. Pam's debut CD "Open Hands" was released on Vineyard Breeze Records in June of 2001. With Pam on vocals, guitar, and keyboards, the CD was produced with WAMMIE Producer of the Year Marco Delmar at Recording Arts Studios. "Open Hands" won two WAMMIE nominations for Best Debut Recording and Best Contemporary Folk Recording from the Washington Area Music Association. Pam wrote eleven of the tunes on "Open Hands." The twelfth song is a cover of John Gorka's "Love is Our Cross to Bear." The CD features musical contributions by Jon Carroll, J.T. Brown, and Robbie Magruder - all three of whom toured with Mary Chapin Carpenter - as well as guitar virtuoso Al Petteway and other talented musicians. "Pam Steinfeld has a folky release entitled 'Open Hands' that is gettin' a heap o' praise out there from the Billboard crew. It is heartfelt and good. She can sing sweetly with that perfect lilt that is hard to master. Her songs are well crafted. Her guitar work fits perfectly with her voice. Look out Mary Chapin." Music Monthly " 'Open Hands' is a CD filled with lovely melodies and great musicianship as well as Pam's clear, strong voice and fabulous songwriting." - Collectedsounds "[Pam] sports a wisdom and appreciation of those things in life to which we are glad we're tethered. Her voice has an earnest charm not unlike a Carly Simon or a Carolyn Hester." - Jon Carroll, keyboard player and vocalist, Mary Chapin Carpenter band "[Pam Steinfeld is a] fine songwriter, celebrating her new CD 'Open Hands.' The lighthearted material talks about real life with an easy charm." - WashingtonPost.com

"Pam Steinfeld, contemporary folk singer/songwriter, guitarist, keyboardist, writes songs oriented toward relationships, friends, and family. Her lyrics delve deep into the DNA of life . . . . Pam's vocals are strong, resonating and sustaining, and she sounds a lot like Joni Mitchell and Mary Chapin Carpenter."- Old Town Crier

Pam writes uptempo, rhythmic tunes and soulful ballads. Her melody-driven songs make people and stories come alive with vivid images and thought-provoking lyrics. The release of "Open Hands" led to a flurry of articles, reviews, radio play, interviews and performances. Pam's music has been profiled or reviewed in The Washington Post, The Journal newspapers, Music Monthly, The Old Town Crier, The Gazette newspapers, Washingtonpost.com, indie-music.com, collectedsounds.com, and many other publications. Songs from "Open Hands" have been heard on over 20 radio stations across the country and overseas, including: WXPB in Philadelphia; WETA in Washington, DC; WRUR in Rochester, NY; WMVY, Martha's Vineyard, MA; KZSC in Santa Cruz, CA, etc. (Ten of the twelve songs on the CD "Open Hands" have aired.) Pam has played numerous coffeehouses, benefits, festivals, and concert series, including Washington Folk Festival , National Race for the Cure, Wintertide Coffeehouse on Martha's Vineyard, Rehoboth Folk Festival, Herndon Festival, Vic's Music Corner, Watchung Arts Center, Jammin' Java, etc. Check out Pam's website to hear sound clips, download songs, find upcoming shows, read reviews, and see concert photos: PamSteinfeld.com For bookings and CD sales, you can e-mail Pam at PJSongs@aol.com.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: