Link Wray inspired instrumentals and hard driving vocals. Fuzzy tone, and bare bones. Some people have say that The Atomic Regulators reminds them of a Quentin Tarantino movie. 15 MP3 Songs ROCK: Surf Rock, ROCK: Instrumental Rock Details: Not your everyday Rock/Surf trio The Atomic Regulators recall more Davie Allen and Link Wray than any other band. "I grew up watching those old biker films of the '60s. One night I heard "Rumble" on the radio, and BAM I was lost, I had to find that tone. I'm still looking, I'll get it one day." Cheech, guitarist The Atomic Regulators After some false starts and side tracks (Cheech spent several years as lead guitarist for the SF Bay Area punk band Dixie Wrecked) The Atomic Regulators have finally arrived. "Sell Out!" the second outing by this surf tri is a tribute to those fuzz filled movie sound tracks. Produced by Tim StClair for SmokeDog Productions. "I love working with Tim, he's a great producer that brings a lot of experience and vision to a project. No worries with Tim at the controls." Cheech
